MARYLAND INCOME TAX PAYMENT VOUCHER FOR BUSINESS ELECTRONIC FILERS

2007

Payment by Check or Money Order

Corporations must use Form EL102B to pay any balance by check or money order when filing Form 500 electronically. Payments of $10,000 or more must be made using one of the electronic payment options.

Pass-through entities must use Form EL102B to pay any balance by check or money order when filing Form 510 electronically.

Enter the name, federal employer identification number and address in the space provided. Write the payment amount in the block titled "Amount paid with this voucher."

Please make your check or money order payable to the Comptroller of Maryland. Write the federal employer identification number, type of tax and year of tax being paid on your check.

Do not send cash.

Do not mail this form with any other document. It must be mailed separately to ensure credit for timely payment.

Mail your completed Form EL102B and payment to:

Comptroller of Maryland
Revenue Administration Division
Annapolis, MD 21411-0001

Payment by Electronic Funds Withdrawal (direct debit)

The balance due on an electronically filed Form 500 or Form 510 may be paid by electronic funds withdrawal (direct debit). To have the funds automatically withdrawn, provide the direct debit payment option information when electronically filing the tax return. Complete the authorization area on Form EL101B. If electing the direct debit option, do not submit Form EL102B.

Payment by Electronic Funds Transfer
(EFT)

The balance due on an electronically filed Form 500 may be paid by Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) using either the ACH Credit or ACH Debit method. To register for the EFT Program, complete Form EFT 1, Authorization Agreement for Electronic Funds Transfer available at www.marylandtaxes.com. If you have any questions, please contact the EFT Unit at 410-260-7601. If electing the EFT option, do not submit Form EL102B.
