MARYLAND NONRESIDENT INCOME TAX RETURN FORM 505

INSTRUCTIONS 2005

IMPORTANT NOTES

DUE DATE

Your return is due by April 17, 2006. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, see Instruction 26.

COMPLETING THE RETURN

You must use blue or black ink when completing your return. DO NOT use pencil or red ink. Submit the original return, not a photocopy. If no entry is needed for a specific line, leave blank. Do not enter words such as "none" or "zero" and do not draw a line to indicate no entry.

You may round off all cents to the nearest whole dollar. Fifty cents and above should be rounded to the next higher dollar.

ELECTRONIC FILING INSTRUCTIONS

The instructions in this packet are designed specifically for filers of paper returns. If you are filing electronically and these instructions differ from the instructions for the electronic method being used, you should comply with the instructions appropriate for that method.

Software vendors should refer to the e-file handbook for their instructions.

SUBSTITUTE FORMS

You may file your Maryland income tax return on a computer-prepared or computer-generated substitute form provided the form is approved in advance by the Revenue Administration Division. The fact that a software package is available for retail purchase does not guarantee that it has been approved for use.

For additional information, see Administrative Release 26, Procedures for Computer-Printed Substitute Forms, which can be obtained from any office of the Comptroller. (See the back cover of this booklet.)

You may also call the tax information numbers listed on the back cover to find out which computer-generated forms have been approved for use or visit our website www.marylandtaxes.com.

PENALTIES

There are severe penalties for failing to file a tax return, failing to pay any tax when due, filing a false or fraudulent return, or making a false certification. The penalties include criminal fines, imprisonment, and a penalty on your taxes. In addition, interest is charged on amounts not paid.

To collect unpaid taxes, the Comptroller is directed to enter liens against the salary, wages or property of delinquent taxpayers.

1 What form to file?

IF YOU ARE A:	YOU SHOULD FILE:
Taxpayer whose permanent home (domicile) is a state other than Maryland unless you are a statutory resident ,	Form 505 Nonresident Return.
Taxpayer who maintains a place of abode (that is, a place to live) for more than six (6) months of the tax year in Maryland and you are physically present in Maryland for more than 183 days, you are a statutory resident .	Form 502 Resident Return.
Taxpayer who began or ended legal residence in Maryland during the tax year, you must file as a resident for that portion of the year during which you maintained Maryland residence, even if less than six (6) months.	Form 502 Resident Return.
Nonresident of Maryland but received salary, wages or other compensation for personal services performed in any Maryland county or Baltimore City and you lived in a jurisdiction that imposes a local or earnings tax on Maryland residents, NOTE: If you have other income subject to Maryland tax, you must also file Form 505. (For further information and forms, call 410-260-7980.)	Form 515 Nonresident Local Tax Return.
Taxpayer who moved into or out of Maryland during the tax year and received income from Maryland sources while you were a nonresident of Maryland,	Form 505 Nonresident Return and Form 502 Resident Return.

2 Nonresident, resident and part-year resident. You are a nonresident if you are not a resident under any of the conditions listed below:

You are a resident if your permanent home is in Maryland (the law refers to this as your domicile) or your home is outside Maryland but you maintained a place of abode (that is a place to live) in Maryland for more than six (6) months (183 days) of the tax year and you are physically present in Maryland for more than 183 days. (you are a statutory resident).

You are a part-year resident if you established or abandoned legal residence during the tax year.

If you are an active duty military member, see Instruction 27.

3 What income is taxable? A nonresident individual is subject to tax on that portion of the federal adjusted gross income that is derived from tangible property, real or personal, permanently located in Maryland (whether received directly or from a fiduciary) and on income from a business, trade, profession or occupation carried on in Maryland and on all gambling winnings derived from Maryland sources. Adjustments to federal gross income and losses not allocable to Maryland may not be used to reduce Maryland income.

4 Who must file? In general, you must file this return if you are a nonresident of Maryland AND you are required to file a federal return based upon the income levels in Table 1 or 2 AND you received income from sources within Maryland. Remember, if your federal gross income is more than the federal minimum filing requirement for your filing status, you are required to file a Maryland return, even if the income attributable to Maryland is less than the federal filing requirement.

TO DETERMINE IF YOU ARE REQUIRED TO FILE A MARYLAND RETURN:

- a. Add up all of your federal gross income to determine your total income. Gross income is defined in the Internal Revenue Code and, in general, consists of all income from any source. It includes wages and other compensation for services, gross income derived from business, gains (not losses) derived from dealings in property, interest, rents, royalties, dividends, alimony, annuities, pensions, income from partnerships or fiduciaries, etc. If any modification or deduction reduces your gross income below the minimum filing level, you are still required to file. IRS Publication 525 provides additional information on taxable and nontaxable income.
- b. Do not include social security or railroad retirement benefits in your total income.
- c. Add to your total income any Maryland additions to income. Do not include any additions related to non-Maryland income or loss. (See Instruction 12.) This is your Maryland gross income.

- d. If you are a dependent taxpayer, add to your total income any Maryland additions and subtract any Maryland subtractions. (See Instructions 12 and 13.) This is your Maryland gross income.
- e. You must file a Maryland return if your Maryland gross income equals or exceeds the income levels in Table 1.
- f. If you or your spouse is 65 or over, use Table 2, "Minimum Filing Levels for Taxpayers 65 or over."

IF YOU ARE A NONRESIDENT, YOU ARE NOT REQUIRED TO FILE A MARYLAND RETURN IF:

- your Maryland gross income is less than the minimum filing level for your filing status, OR
- you had no income from Maryland sources, OR
- you reside in the District of Columbia, Pennsylvania, Virginia or West Virginia and had only wages from Maryland. See Instruction 11 for additional information.

MARYLAND TAX WITHHELD IN ERROR

If Maryland tax was withheld from your income, you must file to obtain a refund of the withholding. Complete all of the information at the top of the form through the filing status, residence information and exemption areas. Enter your federal adjusted gross income on line 17 in both columns 1 and 3 and line 24. Then complete line 33*, lines 43-48, 50 and 52.

Sign the return and attach withholding statements (Form W-2 and/or 1099) showing the Maryland tax withheld equal to the refund you are claiming.

Your return is then complete. You must file within three years of the original due date to receive any refund.

* Enter zero unless you claim an earned income credit on your federal return.

Minimum Filing Level Tables

Table 1 – For taxpayers under 65	Table 2 – For taxpayers 65 or over
Single persons (including dependent taxpayers) $ 8,200	Single, age 65 or over $ 9,450
Joint return 16,400	Joint return, one spouse age 65 or over 17,400
Married persons filing separately 3,200	Joint return, both spouses age 65 or over 18,400
Head of household 10,500	Married persons filing separately, age 65 or over 3,200
Qualifying widow(er) 13,200	Head of household, age 65 or over 11,750
	Qualifying widow(er), age 65 or over 14,200

5 Use of federal return. First complete your 2005 federal income tax return.

You will need the information from your federal return in order to complete your Maryland return. Therefore, complete your federal return before you continue beyond this point. Maryland law requires that your income and deductions be entered on your Maryland return exactly as they were reported on your federal return. If you use a federal Form 1040NR, visit our website for further information. All items reported on your Maryland return are subject to verification, audit and revision by the Maryland State Comptroller's Office.

6 Mailing label. Remove the label located on the front cover of this tax packet and place it over the name and address blanks of your tax return. Using the label speeds up processing your return, including getting your refund to you sooner. It also reduces the possibility of error which could delay your refund. NOTE: If you do not use a label, complete the name and address boxes located at the top of the form.

DO NOT USE YOUR LABEL IF:

- a. your name or address is wrong, OR
- b. you and your spouse are going to file separate returns and both of your names or initials are on the label, OR

- c. you are going to file a joint return and only one name is on the label, OR
- d. you are filing a computer-generated return.

IF YOUR RETURN IS BEING COMPLETED BY SOMEONE ELSE:

Take this packet to your tax preparer so that the preparer can attach the label to your return.

7 Social Security Number(s). Your social security number is not printed on the label. Therefore, it is important that you enter each social security number in the space provided at the top of your tax return regardless of whether you use a label.

The social security number(s) must be a valid number issued by the Social Security Administration of the United States Government. If you, your spouse or dependent(s) do not have a social security number, you must apply for a tax identification number with the Internal Revenue Service.

Use of an incorrect social security or tax identification number could result in the disallowance of any credits or exemptions you may be entitled to and result in a balance due.

Valid social security or tax identification numbers are required for any claim of exemption for a dependent.

8 Filing status. Check the filing status box that matches the filing status you used on your federal return unless you are a dependent taxpayer.

A dependent taxpayer is one who can be claimed as a dependent on another person's tax return. If married, the dependent taxpayer and spouse must file separate returns. A dependent taxpayer may not claim a personal exemption. Check the box for filing status 6.

Generally, if you filed a joint federal return for 2005, you must file a joint Maryland return. Married couples who file joint federal returns may file separate Maryland returns when one spouse is a resident of Maryland and the other spouse is a nonresident of Maryland.

If you and your spouse filed separate federal returns you must file separate Maryland returns.

9 Residence information. Answer ALL the questions and fill in the appropriate boxes. If you are a Pennsylvania resident, list the township/borough in which you live along with the state of legal residence.

Your state of legal residence is your domicile or permanent home. It is the place you intend to return to after temporary absences. You do not change or abandon a domicile until you establish a new domicile in another state. Military personnel retain their states of legal residence as shown in their records until they take specific action to change the state. Duty assignments alone do not affect legal residence. For additional information, see Administrative Release 37.

10 Exemptions. Determine what exemptions you are entitled to and complete the appropriate area on the form, including the social security numbers for children and other dependents. If more space is required attach a separate statement.

EXEMPTIONS ALLOWED

You are permitted the same number of exemptions that you are permitted on your federal return; however, the exemption amount is different on the Maryland return. Even if you are not required to file a federal return, the federal rules for claiming exemptions still apply to you. Refer to the federal income tax instructions for further information.

In addition to the exemptions allowed on your federal return, you and your spouse are permitted to claim exemptions for being age 65 or over or for blindness. These additional exemptions are in the amount of $1,000 each.

If "Other Dependents" are 65 or over, you also receive an extra exemption of $2,400 that is not permitted on the federal return. Enter the number of exemptions in the appropriate boxes.

Complete the EXEMPTIONS area on the front of Form 505 to determine the exemption amount to enter on line 28.

PART-YEAR RETURNS

If you are required to file both a resident and nonresident return for tax year 2005, each exemption is limited to a total of $2,400. Your exemptions must be prorated on the resident return and nonresident return based on Maryland income. See Instruction 28.

11 Income and adjustments. Complete lines 1 through 17 of the Federal Income column using the figures from your federal return.

Enter in the Maryland Income column all income or loss that was derived from Maryland sources and enter in the Non-Maryland Income column all income or loss derived from non-Maryland sources. Refunds of state or local income taxes, pensions, annuities, IRA distributions, unemployment compensation and social security or railroad retirement benefits are not considered to be from Maryland sources for income tax purposes when these items are received by a nonresident of Maryland. Adjustments to federal gross income are not generally applicable to Maryland unless they pertain to business carried on in Maryland or services performed in Maryland.

Special instructions for residents of the following states:

The District of Columbia or Pennsylvania: If you did not maintain a place of abode in Maryland for more than six months (183 days or more) of 2005, you are exempt from Maryland tax on your Maryland wage and salary income. Enter all wage and salary income in the non-Maryland income column of Form 505, even if you earned the income from services performed in Maryland. If you did maintain a place of abode in Maryland for more than six months (183 days or more), you are a statutory resident. Refer to Instruction 1 to see which form you need to file.

Virginia: If you did not maintain a place of abode in Maryland for any length of time (1 day or more), you are exempt from Maryland tax on your Maryland wage and salary income. Enter all wage and salary income in the non-Maryland income column of Form 505, even if you earned the income from services performed in Maryland. If you did maintain a place of abode in Maryland for 1 day, but less than 6 months (183 days) during 2005, you will be taxed on all of the income from services performed in Maryland. If you did maintain a place of abode for more than six months (183 days or more) you are a statutory resident. Refer to Instruction 1 to see which form you need to file.

West Virginia: Regardless of time spent in Maryland, you should enter all wage and salary income in the non-Maryland income column of Form 505. You are exempt from Maryland tax on all of your Maryland wage and salary income, even if you earned the income from services performed in Maryland.

Standard deduction. Complete line 26a only if you are not itemizing deductions.

The standard deduction method gives you a standard deduction without the need to itemize deductions. Use the appropriate worksheet below to determine the total standard deduc-tion for your filing status and Maryland income. You must adjust the total standard deduction on line 26a based on the percentage of Maryland income. On line 26e enter the Maryland income factor from the worksheet in Instruction 14 to figure your Maryland standard deduction.

Itemized deductions. If you figure your tax by the ITEMIZED DEDUCTION METHOD, complete lines 26b, c and d on Maryland Form 505. If you elected to deduct general sales tax instead of state and local income tax, do not enter that amount on line 26c.

USE FEDERAL FORM 1040 SCHEDULE A

To use the ITEMIZED DEDUCTION METHOD, you must itemize your deductions on your federal return and complete federal Form 1040 Schedule A. Copy the amount from Schedule A, line 28, Total Itemized Deductions, onto line 26b of Form 505. Certain items of federal itemized deductions are not eligible for State purposes and must be subtracted from line 26b. State and local income taxes (but not general sales tax) used as a deduction for federal purposes must be entered on line 26c. Also, any amount deducted as contributions of Preservation and Conservation Easements for which a credit is claimed on Form 502CR must be added to line 26c. Complete lines 26b to 26e and enter the result on line 26.

You are not required to itemize deductions on your Maryland return simply because you itemized on your federal return. Figure your tax each way to determine which method is best for you.

Your Maryland itemized deductions are limited to those deductions related to Maryland income. You must adjust the total itemized deductions on line 26d based on the percentage of Maryland income. On line 26e enter the Maryland income factor from the worksheet in Instruction 14 to figure your Maryland itemized deductions.

NOTE: Certain high-income taxpayers are required to reduce their federal itemized deductions. If you had to reduce your total federal itemized deductions, use the ITEMIZED DEDUCTION WORKSHEET to calculate the amount of state and local income taxes to enter on line 26c of Form 505.

The location of your legal residence determines which county should be entered on your return. See Instructions 6 and 19. If you file a joint federal return see Instruction 7.
2—with overseas pay	Same as above, may subtract up to $15,000 in military pay earned outside U.S. boundaries or possessions, depending upon total military income. If you file a joint federal return see Instruction 7.

If the civilian spouse files a separate resident return, the military spouse is not required to file a Maryland return. If you are not certain which filing status to use, figure your tax both ways to determine which status is best for you. If the civilian spouse files a separate resident return, see Instruction 8. The civilian spouse may: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (1) claim the standard deduction; (2) claim only the individual's federal itemized deductions from among those deductions claimed on the federal return that are attributable exclusively to that individual; and from those itemized deductions not otherwise claimed, claim a prorated amount of the itemized deductions using the Maryland income factor; or (3) claim a prorated amount of the itemized deductions claimed on the federal return. If the couple files a joint return, report your federal adjusted gross income on your Maryland return. See Instruction 26 (c) through (j) in the resident booklet. The Maryland tax is then computed based on the balance of the total income. The standard deduction or itemized deductions and exemptions must be adjusted using the ratio of Maryland adjusted gross income to federal adjusted gross income. In this situation, Military Worksheet A on the next page should be used to compute the amount of allowable deductions and exemptions.
6—with military income and other income in Maryland and civilian spouse with any income residing in Maryland for more than six months	The civilian taxpayer becomes a statutory resident because of residency for more than six months of the tax year. The military spouse remains a nonresident for purposes of Maryland taxation. You must file an amended return to make certain changes on your original return. These include changes in income, filing status, amount of deductions, the number of exemptions and the amount of additions to income and subtractions from income.

Note: Changes made as part of an amended return are subject to audit for up to three years from the date the amended return is filed.

Use Form 502X to file an amended return and include a copy of your federal return. Form 502X and instructions may be obtained by calling 410-260-7951, or by visiting our website at www.marylandtaxes.com.

CHANGES TO YOUR FEDERAL RETURN

If the Internal Revenue Service makes any changes to your federal return, you must notify the State of Maryland. Send notification to the Maryland Revenue Administration Division within 90 days of the final determination of the changes by the IRS.

If you file an amended federal return that changes your Maryland return, you must file an amended Maryland return.

IF YOUR ORIGINAL RETURN SHOWED A REFUND

If you expect a refund from your original return, do not file an amended return until you have received your refund check. Then cash the check; do not return it. If your amended return shows a smaller refund, send a check for the difference with the amended return. If your amended return shows a larger refund, the Revenue Administration Division will issue an additional refund check.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Do not file an amended return until sufficient time has passed to allow the original return to be processed. For current year returns, allow at least six weeks.

Generally, a claim for a refund or overpayment credit must be filed within three years from the date the original return was filed or within two years from the date the tax was paid, whichever is later. A return filed early is considered filed on the date it was due. If a claim is filed within three years after the date the return was filed, the credit or refund may not be more than that part of the tax paid within the three years, plus any extension of time for filing the return, prior to the filing of the claim. If a claim is filed after the three-year period, but within two years from the time the tax was paid, the refund or credit may not be more than the tax paid within two years immediately before filing the claim for a refund or credit.

A claim for refund based on a federal net operating loss carryback must be filed within three years from the due date of the return for the year of the net operating loss.

If the claim for refund resulted from a federal adjustment or final decision of a federal court which is more than two years from the time the tax was paid, a claim for refund must be filed within one year from the date of the adjustment or final decision.

If the claim for refund or credit for overpayment resulted from a final determination made by an administrative board or an appeal of a decision of an administrative board, that is more than three years from the date of filing the return or more than two years from the time the tax was paid, the claim for refund must be filed within one year of the date of the final decision of the administrative board or final decision of the highest court to which an appeal of the administrative board is taken.

No refund for less than $1.00 will be issued. No payment of less than $1.00 is required.

32 Privacy act information.

The Tax-General Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland authorizes the Revenue Administration Division to request information on tax returns to administer the income tax laws of Maryland, including determination and collection of correct taxes. tions, exclusions, credits, deductions or adjustments may be disallowed and you may owe more tax. In addition, the law provides penalties for failing to supply information required by law or regulations.

You may look at any records held by the Revenue Administration Division which contain personal information about you. You may inspect such records, and you have certain rights to amend or correct them.

As authorized by law, information furnished to the Revenue Administration Division may be given to the United States Internal Revenue Service, a proper official of any state that exchanges tax information with Maryland and to an officer of this State having a right to the information in that officer's official capacity. The information may be obtained in accordance with a proper legislative or judicial order.
